

Partnering Opportunities Through Sterling Ledet & Associates

Affiliate Reseller Program

By becoming a Sterling Ledet & Associates authorized reseller, your company can use Adobe certified and Macromedia and Quark authorized software training classes to drive revenue, add value and cement relationships with your clients.

Sterling Ledet and Associates compensates you for referrals and registrations obtained through your company. We handle all administration and delivery of classes.

Implementation is easy. You get everything you need to begin offering classes quickly.

Features of this program include:

A customized PDF registration form with your company's logo for distributing to clients or posting on your company's web site.

Free marketing literature and class outlines.

10% commission on training sales ($40 to $150 per class).

Free customized web page with automatically updated schedule of classes.
